

Clarion University of Pennsylvania
Transfer Credit Appeal Policy

Students who wish to appeal a course equivalency on the degree audit may do so by meeting with the dean of their college. Students who appeal an equivalency are asked to provide a course syllabus which is more detailed than catalog descriptions. The course is then re-evaluated by the appropriate academic department.